Islamic retail asset management – Islamic Finance

The investing profiles of Islamic asset and wealth managers significantly differ from those of other financial institutions. These managers need to adopt a more client-focused outlook, understanding how to allocate their customers' faith-based needs, identify Islamic financial asset opportunities, and at the same time define value propositions.
The primary opportunity for Islamic asset management is global and many of Canada's asset managers have looked abroad for these opportunities even though domestic demand is quite strong.
Lipper, and fund reports, as of the end of 2014, the total Islamic fund assets under management in Canada was US$240 million.
